

CLAUDIA KLEINERT

Germany's most prominent TV Weather Presenter Weather and Climate Expert

Claudia Kleinert is Germany's most prominent TV weather presenter. For more than 20 years, she has been presenting television programs, including the weather forecast at ARD and the associated public broadcasters. She manages to give even the most unpleasant weather a bright side.

Claudia Kleinert spent her first professional turbulent and years as a bank clerk. After three years of professional experience in a financial institution, she rounded off her training with a degree in business administration. To ensure that the knowledge she acquired in business administration did not sink completely into the fog, she worked for four years as the managing director of a company that trades in weather data.

But her passion has long belonged to moderation and presentation. In addition to moderating TV shows, Claudia Kleinert has also been moderating events for companies for more than two decades - on business and financial topics from galas to award ceremonies to kick-offs. Claudia Kleinert is also a much sought-after keynote speaker on the topics of climate change as well as communication and impact training.

As an ambassador for Lebenshilfe NRW, Kindernothilfe and as an ambassador for Save The Children, her tireless commitment is devoted to helping people with disabilities and disadvantaged children around the world.

Topics (Selection):

- Climate change and its consequences
- What does the weather do to your business?
- Weather, climate, energy
- Climate crisis: threats and opportunities
- Unbeatably successful - good perspectives for your communication