

Memory Trainer

Oliver Geisselhart is one of the world's most successful memory trainers and, according to ZDF, "Germany's No. 1 mental and memory trainer". At the age of 16 he became known as the youngest memory trainer in Europe. Meanwhile he is several times best-selling author, Top 100 Speaker and university lecturer. Among experts his technique of mental training is regarded as the most practice-oriented.

He studied business administration in Bielefeld with a focus on marketing and personnel management. During his studies he was lecturer and seminar leader and worked as a sales manager. In 1996 Geisselhart founded Teamgeisselhart GmbH. In addition, he has been a lecturer at the private University of Economics in Seekirchen since 2008.

Oliver Geisselhart is well known for his countless newspaper, radio and television reports.

In his lectures and seminars, the "Memory Pope" (TV HH1) knows how to inspire, motivate and turn his listeners into memory users in an inimitable way with wit, charm and esprit. This already earned him the title of "Memory Trainer of the Year" in 2000. Three times in a row (2008, 2009 and 2010) he was awarded the Oscar of the congress and event industry, the "Conga Award". Germany's "leading memory trainer" (N24) fascinates tens of thousands of enthusiastic participants every year with his entertaining lecture style.
