

CHRIS ROEBUCK

Professor of Transformational Leadership Accelerating Your Success

For over 30 years Chris Roebuck has led global teams growing C suite and other leaders as High Performance Human Leaders to Accelerate Success by meeting their key objectives and beating challenges from M&A to customer focus, brand building to risk management and now AI adoption.

Chris has Accelerated Success at HSBC, London Underground, UBS, KPMG, Nat West, UK NHS, helped leaders grow in Goldman Sachs, Tata, Cardinal Health, UK & UAE Prime Ministers Offices, Huawei, Reuters, Barclays, Red Cross, Chinese Space Programme and more, all built on his experience as a British Army Officer and senior leadership roles across business and Government.

He's delivered award winning major transformations and culture change, grown new talent to build entrepreneurial future focused organisations and shown how people power can boost profits.

He interacts with audiences to unleash the power of their own experience to become inspiring and authentic Human Leaders with an action plan to make it work tailored to their own needs and organisations objectives. This enables them to be successful not just now but for rest of their careers. His great feedback is consistent; making leadership make real sense to make it work.

"I have read books and heard leadership speakers over many years but yours was the most inspirational, sensible, clear and practical approach I've heard. You were outstanding." says Colonel Helen Singh – Senior UK National Health Service leader and Commanding Officer, UK Army Reserve, Field Hospital. Veteran of combat operations in Afghanistan and Iraq.
