

ANDERS INDSET

Business Philosopher Tech-Evangelist

Anders Indset is one of the world's leading economic philosophers. He is the author of the three international Spiegel bestsellers Wild Knowledge, Quantum Economics and The Infected Mind.

Anders is co-founder of the Njordis Group and the Global Institute of Leadership & Technology (GILT) and co-initiator of numerous projects such as GBI (Global Blockchain Initiative), Enkelfähig and The European Refinement.

Thinkers50, the premier ranking of global business thinkers, regarded as the "Oscars of Management Thinking" by many, has recognised Anders on the Radar 2018 as one of 30 Global Thinkers "most likely to shape the future of how organizations are managed and led". Anders' latest book "WILD KNOWLEDGE - Outthink the Revolution" was published in Europe in May 2017 and will be translated into numerous languages worldwide throughout 2018.

In his inspiring keynotes, the former player of the Norwegian national handball team covers topics such as leadership, change, creativity and co-creation known for his unconventional thoughts, provoking theses and rock star attitude. Titled anything from "The Rock'n'Roll Plato" to "Digital Jesus" by media, Anders engages, provokes, entertains and educates leaders around the world.
