MICHAEL BRÖCKER

One of Germany's most prominent political journalists
Editor-in-chief at Table Media

Michael Bröcker is one of Germany's most prominent political journalists. As editor-in-chief of Table.Media, he stands for a new type of journalism: in-depth, digital and direct. With his format of 'digital live journalism,' he makes political decision-making processes comprehensible.

Hardly anyone else analyses the political dynamics in Berlin as precisely and accessibly as he does. His assessments are in demand on talk shows, at conferences and at decision-maker events. Bröcker not only explains what is happening, but also why it is happening and what it means for the economy, society and democracy.

After studying economics and political science in Cologne, he began his journalistic career at the Rheinische Post, where he played a decisive role in shaping the newspaper for over 15 years, most recently as editor-in-chief. Today, he is also a co-partner in Media Pioneer Publishing AG, Gabor Steingart's media company.

Michael Bröcker has received numerous awards, including 'Regional Editor-in-Chief of the Year' and 'Newspaper Maker of the Year.' He is involved in the board of trustees of the International Journalists' Programme (IJP) as well as in various award juries and networks for quality journalism.

As a presenter and speaker, he impresses with his analytical depth, attitude and keen sense of nuance. His appearances create clarity, combine background information with impact and open up new perspectives on politics and media in times of change.
